Newspapers by ancestry
https://www.newspapers.com/image/146296890/

Evening star (Washington, District of Columbia) · Tue, Jul 12, 1892 · Page 8
Downloaded on Apr 16, 2026

CONDENSED LOCALS.

WM. ACTON, living at 2134 K street, fell from a scaffold while working on the new gas tank, 26th and G streets, yesterday and was severely bruised. He was taken to the Emergency Hospital.

ELLA LEE, residing at No. 2 Baltimore street (between N, O, 1st and 3d streets northwest), died suddenly at 10:30 o'clock last evening.

MR. BEVERLEY T. SENER has been appointed by the President a notary public for the District of Columbia.

MR. W. W. CHISHOLM, now the deputy collector of internal revenue at New Orleans, has been selected by Collector Powers to take exclusive charge of the operations of the sugar bounty law. The newspapers of that city speak in terms of praise of the selection and warmly commend Mr. Chisholm for the record for ability and efficiency he has made. He has many friends in this city who will rejoice at his success.

MR. L. H. FINNEY, JR., of Washington delivered a lecture in the Rockville Opera House last night on the subject of the Passion Play of Ober-Ammergau to an appreciative audience. The lecture was illustrated with interesting stereopticon views from life.

Clipped By:
OneOldNewspaperFan
Apr 16, 2026

Copyright © 2026 Newspapers.com. All Rights Reserved.